SHARP SCHOOL HEAD IS STABBED

"Our Town" by J. B. WHITE

You can now line up, take sides and dig in for the big bid for leadership. In this corner Roosevelt and in that corner Lindberg. The first round was a light affair. They were just feeling each other out though FDR got in a few good licks. At his press conference Friday the President called Lindberg a Copperhead. A friend asked me the question today: "What is a Copperhead besides a snake." Now the President seems ill-equipped for such a war. I don't know that Lindberg is any better off. What this country needs right now is portfolio for exact castigation. The language was streamlined a long time ago down in the brush country. We could always think of a heap more and better words than just Copperhead, even though it does suggest a snake. The President may need some help, depending on how gruesome the battle becomes. No man who stutters can do the job. The plain variety needs no interpreter or anyone to explain. When they spoke in the brush country nobody misunderstood anything. Somehow I always liked them kind of words. I hadn't heard Copperhead in a long time and still I lack 50 years yet to qualify for a United States Senator. Ancistrodon contortrix, the President might have said, but just think how ineffective that would have been. Instead he said Copperhead and so qualified for the first round. The Copperhead is a hazle colored snake with blotches and strikes without warning. During the Civil war Copperhead was an opprobrious name used by Unionists when they refered to Southern sympathizers in the north. Those of us who have lived by the word and sometimes speak it, now rejoice that it will be heard at last in high places. If it comes into common use in Washington foot notes will not be necessary on documents. Well, FDR if you need a second and a good prompter, you might look around some. All of which reminds me that another gentleman is having a hard time too. He's Martin Dies who speaks here at 8 p. m. Formidable opposition to his candidacy for the Senate sprang up at once. He is being opposed by Hitler, Stalin and Mussolini.

White Is Tuesday Speaker at Chapel

Discussing archeology which has been his hobby for twelve years, J. B. White, editor of the Cameron Herald and father of Mary Frances White, junior student, spoke in chapel Tuesday.

Defining archeology as the study of matters relating to antiquity, from the present back to the earliest possible limits of mankind, and a study of the tangible evidences of humanity, Mr. White said that from these one sees that mankind has steadily progressed from one culture to another.

Illustrating his lecture with a small exhibit from his collection of 40,000 artifacs, Mr. White said that most of these earlier implements were made from flint, and that the men who made them were considered skilled workers.

He then discussed Bell county and Central Texas as a locality for archeological studies, telling where he had done much of his work. He closed by saying that the Brazos holds the secret of a vanished race which may be learned through archaeological and historical research.—Belton Journal.

MARTIN DIES PLEADS FOR AROUSED AMERICA

By THAD RICKS
Temple Telegram Staff Writer

Carrying an appeal to the people of Texas to support his un-Americanism committee's program by electing him to the senate, Martin Dies sought "to arouse and inform" the American people last night at Cameron—or at least that part of the American people who listened to his speech on the courthouse lawn.

Blond hair falling across his brow, the representative from Orange in the second congressional district, gesticulated so in his enthusiasm to bring home to his audience the danger to America from "the borers from within" that he shook the pick-up truck from which he spoke.

"American men are being trained today to fight the uniformed armies of the dictators," he said. "My committee's work is to prepare Americans to meet the threat of the un-uniformed and secret armies of the dictators.

He hammered at the CIO and CIO-sponsored strikes, attributng the fall of France to a popular front built up in France by Moscow—"a CIO in France."

He reiterated claims made by his committee during the three years it has been investigating alleged un-American activties in this country. He described the work of the committee and singled out instances of fifth column organization and leaders exposed by his group.

"The fifth column in the United States," he said, "is better organized and financed than in any other country."

Asking for election to the senate so that legislation to combat subversive activites can be passed more readily, he emphasized his determination to "expose every disloyal person in the United States no matter whoever they are or wherever they may be found."

He praised the American Legion, declaring without the help of Legion posts the Dies committee could not have carried on its work.

"The American Legion has been and is the greatest bulwark in the nation against fascism and communism," he declared, right hand raised in a characteristic palm-out gesture.

Dies' definition of "Americanism:" The recongnition God created every man and endowed him with certain inalienable rights no government has the right to take away."

But he warned we may have to appeal to the people for national unity in these perilous times.

"The fifth column must go; traitors must go; and America must live—and I'd like to have the pleasure of the hand of each of you before you go—" And he did, just about.

Dies was given a bouquet of roses—American beauties.

To combat a "new deal blitzkrieg" directed at putting Lyndon Johnson in the post which both Dies and Gerald Mann are seeking, Dies will "campaign just like I've always done—I'll go through the state just making speeches."

Dies said he intended to speak in Temple sometime in the future, as well as Bryan and Waco. He speaks at Corsicana today.

Exemption Racketeer Said to Be Operating

Prospective trainees were warned to day by General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, against subscribing to "deferment or exemption insurance."

"It has come to the attention of State Headquarters," General Page said, "That swindlers are operating in Texas, and particularly among the colored registrants, selling for a cash fee, policies or papers which are purported to insure the registrant against military training, or to procure for him deferment of service under the Selective Service Act. It is reported that some of these racketteers are impersonating army officers, and in one instance investigation developed that a colored 'sergeant' was threatening hesitant victims with induction into the army on 'a moment's notice.' "

TURKS MOBLIZING ARMY

STUDENTS PETITION BOARD FOR HEARING

Four high school boys, three of them football players, were appealing to the citizenship today by petition in an effort to get the school board to meet and consider their case.

The boys were expelled from school following senior day when they wrote signs on a bus garage.

Other boys were said to be involved in the occurence which included entry of the building and overturning of seats.

Shortly before noon three of the boys Red Bell, Putley Dierr and Owen Stidham, said they had been advised by two members of the school board to go to the school and "talk things over." They went to the school and when it appeared to them they were not received with proper respect or consideration, they left and were circulating a petition asking the school board to convene.

Byron Graham was the fourth student involved in the episode.

Parents of the boys and citizens generally were hopeful something might be done to get the boys back in school.

The school board meets on May 8th. That will be too much loss of time to permit the students to catch up with their work and as a result one will not graduate and the other three may spend an extra year in school.

Football boys, badly needed by Coach Carroll Wood, would not be eligible. Graham and Stidham were good prospects for all district men.

A letter written to parents of the boys detailed charges over alleged acts of the boys on Senior Day. This letter was read over the loud speaker system at the school, The Herald was told, and a copy taken to a local newspaper (not The Herald.) The publisher is reported to have refused publication.

EXTRA

The Cameron School Board notified Owen Stidham at 5 p. m. a meeting will be held tonight to give the boys a hearing and others who wish to appear in behalf of the students. A petition was being circulated but has been withheld pending the outcome of the meeting tonight.

COOKING SCHOOL GETS CAPACITY CROWD HERE

Cameron's Free Cooking School opening here Wednesday got a capacity crowd.

Difficulty was experienced at the Community Natural Gas Company to provide seating for all those in attendance.

J. R. Bush, manager of the gas company, planned to have a photo made of the first day attendance.

Miss Albertine Berry, noted Home Economist, with the Gas Co., is delivering the lectures. The school will run through Thursday and Friday, May 1 and 2. It is being sponsored by the Band Parents Association.

Mrs. Don Slocomb and the members of her committee achieved a notable success with this first all home cooking school.

HITLER AND DUCE IN QUARREL OVER SPOILS

Turkey today called up 8 classes of men for service in her army.

It was not known how many men were involved in the call but the number was believed to be very large.

Germany has advanced within 50 miles of the Turkish border.

Soviet Russia was supposed to be disturbed over the landing of German troops in Finland.

There were reports that Hitler and Mussolini were quarreling over the spoils in Greece.

Last week the Germans refused to let the Italians march into Greece and Count Ciano and Ribbethrop were in conference. The Italians were told bluntly Germany would not permit any advances or claims.

In North Africa the Nazi army had penetrated into Tobruk and there was increasing evidence the fight is on for the Suez Canal.

The British were not expected to be able to save the canal or any part of the Mediterranean.

In Washington all the news revolved around the start of the defense bonds sale. That will be broadcast for days now. In view of the apparent entry into the war the news, if any, favorable to the Democracies will come out of Washington. All news from Europe will be bad news from now on.

1C REDUCTION FOR KEY RATE OF INSURANCE

A one cent reduction in the key rate for fire insurance in Cameron was announced here Monday by Gordon Baskin of the Camp-Baskin Insurance Agency.

L. B. Newsum, engineer for the Texas Fire Insurance Commission was in Cameron to make final inspection and while in the city announced the reduction.

Mr. Baskin had been working on the matter for some time, he said.

Reasons for reduction was the extention of another electric service line to the pumping plant of the Community Public Service Co., selling the water supply to the city.

Texas Power & Light Company also co-operated in this matter as did the water company.

The new service will enable the pumping plant to continue in operation if the present electric current line should for any reason fail.

Although the reduction is small it is worth noting that a better power system is available for water pumping in cases of emergency. The exact saving will be about $285 per year. This figure is based on the amount of premiums paid in the city.

Mr. Baskin pointed out the need and the savings about one year ago. W. H. Lawrence of the Cameron Ice & Cold Storage Company volunteered his plant for an additional pumping line, but the Texas Power & Light Company made an additional line to serve the plant.

HIT WITH BOOK, 15 YEAR OLD STUDENT STRIKES

Superintendent A. B. Dunn of the Sharp High School, is in the Cameron Hospital with a stab wound in his stomach.

The superintendent was stabbed by Wayford Gersbach, 15 year old student in the school at Sharp, late Wednesday afternoon.

An operation was performed here to relieve the patient of danger of infection, it was said. He was reported resting well and has good chance to recover.

Criminal District Attorney W. A. (Bill) Morrison and Deputy Sheriff LeRoy Massengale, went to Sharp Thursday to make an investigation.

The boy is said to have used a long bladed knife. According to information reaching the Herald which has not been confirmed, Dunn struck the boy with a book, knocking him down. The fight occured in one of the hallways of the new Sharp High School. After the boy had been struck he drew a knife and stabbed the Superintendent, it was reported here.

Whether charges will be filed was not known.

Superintendent Dunn has been superintendent there for one year prior to the present term. He succeeded Superintendent Middleton.

Wayford Gersbach is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guido Gersbach of Sharp.

PARITY PAYMENT RATES SHOW FARM EARNINGS

With the recent detemination of 1941 parity payment rates, Milam county farmers can now estimate the amount they can earn through full participation in the 1941 AAA farm program, according to R. C. Flatt, secretary of the county AAA committee.

Parity payments, based on the normal yields on allotted acreages, will be made at the rate of 1.38 cents per pound on cotton, 10 cents per bushel on wheat, and 32.4 cents per barrel on rice, the AAA official said. Farmers who participate in the 1941 AAA program and plant within their farm acreage allotments of these crops are eligible to receive payments at these rates, he dclared.

In addition to parity payments, co-operating farmers will receive conservation payments based on the normal yield of the farm acreage allotments. As previously announced, conservation rates for 1941 are 1.37 cents per pound on cotton, 8 cents per bushel on wheat, 8.91 cents per barrel on rice, 11.25 cents per 100 pounds on peanuts, $1.30 per acre on commercial vegetables, and an average of .90 cents per acre on general soil-depleting crops for Milam county. All payments are subject to deductions if acreage allotments are overplanted.

Farmers, also, may earn payments under the Agricultural Conservation Program for carrying out approved soilbuilding practices up to the maximum allowance available to the farm. In most cases, this information has been made available to the farmer on his 1941 farm plan sheet.

Parity payments in Texas are made to producers of wheat, cotton, and rice to give them more nearly a fair share of the national income and to bring farm income and purchasing power nearer the 1910-14 level, the secretary explained. At that time, before the first World War, prices of agricultural and industrial products were in comparative balance. Both conservation and parity payments help farmers to adjust production to meet all market needs and to farm in such a way as to maintain and build up the fertility of the soil, R. C. Flatt explained.

OVERFLOW DAMAGE NOT EXPECTED TO BE HEAVY

Overflow damage in the lowlands of Little River were not expected to be heavy, although rain has continued for several days and was still falling around 8 a. m. Tuesday.

Rivers and creeks west are overflowing mildly and at Cameron the river was flowing across the bottoms. No damage was expected here.

Continued rain has definitely set crop operation back to the danger point..

Milam County Gets Another Underpass

Cameron was further isolated today when State Highway Department announced the buildng of a concrete street in Belton and another underpass of the Santa Fe at Milano.

Highway 79 and Highway 36 intersect at Milano and the highway crossing bridge at Milano will be removed and an underpass constructed, or if plans call for it another bridge.

The bridge is unsafe for traffic and being on highway 79 must be rebuilt.

Free Merchandise at Cooking School Totals 419 Items, List Shows

Free distribution of Merchandise will reach an all time high at the three day Cooking School to be held in Cameron beginning April 30 and running through May 1 and 2.

Through the efforts of the McLane Company in Cameron and Mr. Robert McLane, the distribution will be the most impressive yet seen at a cooking school in Cameron.

When the list was received from McLane Company a check up was made and the number of items is 419.

With 419 items of merchandise to figure in the daily award and free drawings it is certain to become a cooking school that will set a record in appreciation for attendance and co-operation.

The merchandise covers a variety of brands and includes the famous Kuner lines of canned goods.

There are 10 sacks and bags of flour included in the free distribution and of this flour is Smith's Best to be featured by Albertine Berry each day in the bakings at the school.

There are salt shakers and salt pads, dozens of them. The famous Whitson Mexican foods all canned are included and many other items too numerous to mention.

Would Organize Clubs Here for Dies

Congressman Martin Dies so impressed the people here Friday night that The Daily Herald learned Saturday organization was under way to give him wide support in this county.

A leader among the women has suggested a woman's club for Dies to work in co-operation with a similar club from the men voters with the view of giving the Congressman a strong vote here.

Cheered repeatedly Friday night, Mr. Dies, a tall handsome Texan, shook hands with almost a thousand people before he finally left the court house lawn. Local members of the American Legion were unofficially doing everything possible for Mr. Dies in his campaign for the the United States Senate.

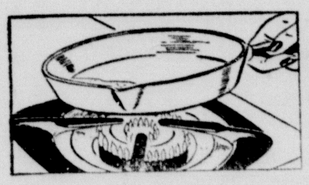
Vitamin Saver

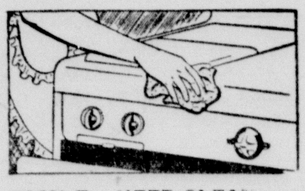
Modern Gas Range Ends Vitamin and Mineral Waste!

Healthful "Waterless" Cooking Needs Accurate Heat Control

In modern gas top burner cookery the vitamins and mineral salts of spring's tender vegetables are saved. This is because of exact, measured heat which gives perfect controllability for "waterless" method of health cooking—the method using little water, low heat and a covered vessel. Modern gas top burners give not only this gentle boiling heat but simmering warmth and high speed heat up to vigorous frying temperatures. Thus a more economical and a greater time releasing cooking service is provided. But see for yourself all the cooking conveniences of a modern gas range—its oven, its broiler, its automatic features. Then you'll see why more and more women are modernizing with a new gas range!



MODERN GAS SIMMER BURNER gives maximum flexibility and instant change of heat from a tiny warming heat to an intense heat for speed boiling and fast frying—no waiting. It's heat as you want it, when wanted.



EASY TO KEEP CLEAN are the smooth porcelain surfaces of a modern gas range. A quick swipe with a cloth after using will keep a modern gas range sparkling. With measured heat there's no excess steam to mar kitchen walls.

WITH THE BAPTISTS

In spite of inclement weather, there were no noticable effects up on our work last Sunday. With the Sunday School as a gauge we can say that we improved over last Sunday's work considerable. There were 320 in Sunday School, which was an increase of about 20 over the previous Sunday. Our offerings amounted to about $150. Our training union soared to a new high for April; an even hundred. This is largely due to the enthusiasm and spiritual conviction of Carl K. Cain, who is the training union Director. The TU officers had a meeting Monday night, discussing points of weakness and "growth factors" of a training union. The church service was also outstanding in attendance and in work accomplished. We were glad to receive two new members into our fellowship.

On Wednesday night in Prayer Meeting one of the ladies said emphatically, "we need song books." This was relayed to a special called meeting of the Deacons, and they agreed for Bro. Burke, choir director, to lead in raising subscription for 200 books. Everybody, including the Angells, gave song books. We lacked only fifteen reaching the desired goal of 200. These books will be in our auditorium on Mother's Day. If possible the name of the church will be printed in gold on the front, and will begin their uninterupted service for the Lord for several years.

Plans are in the making for a Daily Vacation Bible School. The approximate dates are the first three weeks in June. The R. A. Boys gathered Tuesday night for a big picnic with their sponsors, Curtis Lowe and John A. Smith. They were also privileged to have Mrs. Earl Moseley, WMU president, and others with them on this delightful occasion.

The Co-Workers TU group will feast upon a banquet prepared by their husband's wives Friday night. After the good hour together every one will agree that there are some expert cooks behind the delicious food awaiting them. And needless to say, there will be some expert eaters also at the table. This will be the bright spot in their month's social activities.

Things not to forget: Our Sunday School, 9:45; 11 a. m. Sermon, "Touch Not, Taste Not, and Handle Not," Col. 2:21; Training Union. "Christ, the Supreme Expression of God's Love;" 7:15 Eevening Worship.

Among those presen' now being used by the Methodist were four who were christened at the same service 60 years ago.

Among the Kemp family were Judge Kemp, his sister, Mrs. Frank Adams of Jackson, Miss., formerly Miss Rosa Kemp of Cameron; Miss Sallie Kemp of New Orleans, who is 85 years old; Willie McLendon, age 85 years, of Amita, La., and others from Baton Rough, La. Resignation Frances Perkins Demanded by Virginia Senator

Resignation of Secretary of Labor, Frances Perkins, was demanded today in the Senate of the United States by Senator Byrd of Virginia.

Said the Senator: "I demand the resignation of Miss Perkins as Secretary of Labor and the appointment of a two fisted man with intestinal fortitude."

Failure of the Labor Secretary to deal with strikes was causing growing alarm in Washington. It was understood that Miss Perkins has resigned but the resigation has not been accepted by Roosevelt.

Mrs. Mamie Howell, widow of the late T. A. Howell, formerly of Cameron, is here on a visit with Mrs. John Mayfield, and a brother, Roy Griffith and family. Mrs. Howell is making her home in Waco. Her many friends are happy to welcome her return visit.

Department of Agriculture Announces Plan To Increase Supplies of Some Foods in U. S.

The Department of Agriculture announced today an expansion of the Ever-Normal Granary Program in to a food program designed to assure ample supplies for the United States, Great Britain and other nations resisting aggression.

Under the expanded program, the production of pork, dairy products, eggs and poultry will be stimulated through the support of prices over the period ending Jun 30, 1943, at levels remunerative to producers. Other phases of the program include:

1. Continuation of the existing corn loan program for 1941 and 1942.

2. Continuation of the policy of making loan corn available to producers at the loan rate plus certain carrying charges.

3. Allowing producers in the commercial corn producing area to increase corn acreage up to their usual acreage. These producers would not receive corn payments.

4. No corn marketing quotas for the 1941 crop.

Assuming continuation of existing price relationships and taking seasonal price variations into account, the Department will make purchases in the open market to support long term prices (Chicago basis) at levels approximotely as follows:

Commodities
Hogs cwt	$9.00
Dairy products (basis of butter lb.)	.31
Chickens lb.	.15
Eggs dozen	22

It was pointed out that these prices would be subject to the customary commercial differentials for market grades and qualities.

The Government' purchases in the open market will be used to accumulate reserve supplies of food. These supplies can be used for transfer to the British and other countries under the provisions of the Lend-Lease Act; for release upon the market in case of unwarranted speculative price increases; to meet requests from the Red Cross for shipment to war refugee areas and for direct distribution through school lunch programs or through state welfare departments to public aid families. Arrangements are also being made for a full and complete co-ordination of those purchases with those being made for our armed forces.

Under the program, farmers will be urged to: (a) increase pork production by feeding hogs to heavier weights and by increasing farrowing of pigs: (b) increase dairy production by feeding cows more grain and by milking more cows: (c) encourage additional production of poultry by increasing the size of flocks.

Although producers in the commercial corn areas will not receive corn payments or be eligible for corn loans if they plant up to their usual acreage, there will be no reduction in other payments of the usual acreage of corn is not exceeded.

The Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 provides that the Secretary of Agriculture may remove operation of marketing quotas in the case of national emergency, or because of a materiai increase in export demand.

"Obviously," Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard said, "The comparatively few producers in commercial corn areas who wish to plant up to their usual acreage of corn in order to have feed for increased dairy, poultry and livestock production will wish, and should have at this time, assurances that there will be no corn marketing quotas on the 1941 crop. Because of the ample feed supplies on hand in the country, however, most producers should plant within their corn allotments.

"It is time," Secretary Wickard said, "to begin coverting our ever-normal granary supplies into ever-normal food supplies.

"We have conducted intensive studies of the needs of the United States, England and other democracies. We beleive we have a sufficient supply of most agricultural commodities. Larger supplies of some pork, dairy and poultry products will be needed, however, in the United States, in the British Isles and in Europe for several years, irrespective of the duration of the war. In Europe foundation herds and flocks are being rapidly depleted. Even in normal times, many Americans need more of these protective food products. Because of the Ever Normal Granary, fed supplies are abundant and farmers will only be too glad to increase their production of pork, dairy products, poultry and eggs if prices make it profitable to grow more of these foods. Consumers should realize that fair returns to farmers for the food products mentioned are the best assurance, not only of ample supplies but, in the long run, of fair prices to consumers.

"This ever-normal food supply program will, we feel, stimulate sufficient increase in production to insure that food supplies will be adequate for all needs here and abroad. Consequently, there should be no danger of run-away markets for any of these food products. Should unwaranted speculation drive prices up to unduly high levels at any time, the supplies in the hands of the Government will be released to stabilize prices and maintain them at reasonable levels. Under this ever-normal food program, consumers will be protected and farmers will benefit by selling more products at fairer prices than those that have prevailed during the past few years."

The Secretary said the plan to increase the production of food emphasized that national farm programs are adjustment programs in every sense of the word.

"Since these programs began, we have pointed out that they could be used to increase production," Secretary Wickard said, "and that farmers would like nothing better than an opportunity to prove that fact.

"Furthermore, the soil conservation that has taken place during the past eight years has put farmers in a position to produce more and to produce it without the soil destruction that took place during the first World War.

"I do not want this food plan to be misunderstood. This action does not mean that we should scrap our farm programs and rush out to produce more of every farm commodity without regard for our soil, or what this country and the other democracies will need. To do this would be to repeat the mistakes of the first war and would injure everyone concerned.

"This is not the time to waste soil fertility and farmers efforts by producing without regard to actual requirements. It is only common sense to produce more of the commodities we need and to hold down on production of the commodities we don't need and aren't likely to need.

"For example, we are proceeding with plans for a marketing quota referendum on wheat May 31. The world carryover of wheat in July 1, 1941, is expected to be around the record carryover on July 1, 1940, of one billion, four hundred million bushels. The carryover in the United States is expected to be 380 million bushels, over 150 million bushels more than the acreage for the 10-year period 1930-1939, which in turn was higher than the previous 10-year average. For various reasons, Eugland isn't taking much of our wheat and continental Europe is almost completely cut off as a market. For the protection of growers, we need to take steps that will reduce the production of wheat just as we need to increase the production of pork, dairy products, and some other foods.

"Wheat can almost immediately be converted into bread and other foods but susbtantial increases in meat supplies mut be planned in advance.

Generally speaking, the supply situation of wheat is the situation of cotton, tobacco and some minor commodities and the Department plans to do what it can to prevent additions to burdensome surpluses of these crops.

"Agriculture is perhaps better prepared than any other industry to contribute fully to national defense. Through national programs for agriculture, farmers have the machinery to produce abundantly and efficiently. Given reasonable returns on their products, farmers will continue to produce abundantly and efficiently."

U. S. NAVY IN ACTION ALONG THE SEA LANES

With the Balkan campaign over so far as results go there was a lull today in war activities over the world.

All eyes were focused on Washington where President Roosevelt gave endorsement to the speeches of Knox and Secretary of State Hull both of whom put America squarely into the fight on Germany.

A side swipe at Lindberg whom he called a Copperhaed, the President issued a bristling statement at his press conference.

The American Navy is on patrol duty all along the Atlantic sea lanes. The government will not permit German submarines to sink ships carrying war materials to Britain without challenge.

The President stirred grave speculation when he said that Nazi forces may already be in Greenland. He said that measures were being taken to chase them off the biggest island in the world. That might bring war.

While the British held tenaciously to a small strip of Greek territory a major portion of their troops were being evacuated to the isle of Crete where the Greek government fled from Athens.

The Germans will take over the city of Athens within the next few days and many raleady have entered the Greek capital.

In Africa the British had stalled the Geman offensive at Salum and around Bardia.

American ships will be as safe as if convoyed. After all there was no diference of opinion over patrols and convoys. Both require naval action and naval action pre-suppoes fight so the country has at last put itself in possition to be shot at.

STATE MEET IS WON BY O. J. THOMAS SCHOOL

Cameron's O. J. Thomas High School made a clean sweep of the State Meet held at Prairie View on Saturday, April 19th.

Henry Staton, Principal here, displayed the trophies and penants won by his boys.

With only seven boys competing in the events at the state meet they won 8 watches. In addition there were 2 large penants and six medals.

The team was coached by Chas. Cole, athletic director.

The students competing with all other class A schools in Texas, won every wrist watch offered in class A. There were eight watches offered and Cameron brought eight back.

The results of events were as follows:

	Place
880 Yard Run, Fred Reeves	1st.
440 Yard Run, Paris Heard	1st.
1 Mile Run, Cokie Bowser	1st.
Spring Medley Relay	1st.
1 Mile Relay	1st.
220 Yard Dash, M. Phiffer	2nd.
220 Yd. Low Hurdles, M. Phifer	2nd.
Shot Put, John Caldwell	3rd.
Jr. Declamation, Jafus Cavil	2nd.

Sprint Medley Relay team: Othella Woodridge, John Caldwell, Montgomery Phifer and Fred Lee Reeves.

1 Mile Relay team: Tranchanize Poole, Othella Woodridge, John and Fred Lee Reeves.

This was accomplished in spite of the fact that Paris Heard, 1940 champion in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes, was not able to run in those events, due to a pulled muscle, he only ran the 440, which he won with ease.

Footprints of the Trojan Horse

EDITOR'S NOTE: This graphic analysis of "Fifth Column" techniques is published by the (name of newspaper) in cooperation with the National Department of Americanism of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. The text and illustrations are taken from the book "Footprints of the Trojan Horse" published by Citizenship Educational Service, 122 East 42nd Street, New York City, a non-profit association of patriotic organizations dedicated to the preservation of Americanism.

The use of a minority group as a scapegoat is one of the oldest devices in history, used by tyrants to gain power and stay in power.

IN THE ROMAN EMPIRE circuses were used to divert the masses. Men of weak and defenseless groups were thrown to the lions, and scores of these victims were Christians.

1

IN THE UNITED STATES, between the years 1830 and 1860, there was a wave of Irish Catholic immigration. During this period the "Know Nothing" or self-styled "American" party was formed and attained considerable power by spreading propaganda to the effect that the Catholics were to blame for all America's troubles.

2

WHENEVER THE CZARS OF RUSSIA wished to divert the attention of the people from the miseries suffered under their rule, they worked up hatred of the Jews. This was effective in diverting attion from the tyrannies of the Czarist regime.

3

IN GERMANY, HITLER borrowed the technique of the Czars and gained power over the people by the same method.

"Why did Germany lose the war?" "Because of the Jews."

The German people were so blinded by this smoke screen that they did not realize they were surrendering their liberties as a price for giving way to an artificially aroused hatred.

OBITUARY
MR. STADLER PEEL

Mr. Stadler Peel was born at Port Sullivan, Texas, on October 10th, 1882. Much of Mr. Peel's life was spent in Milam county at Port Sullivan, Gause and Maysfield. He lived for awhile at Hearne, in Robertson county. On Sept. 17th, 1914 he was married to Miss Ruby Ireland at Gause, and for over a quarter of a century they lived together with love and devotion for each other. One child was born to this union, Wanda Nell, who lived to be eighteen years of age and passed on to her Heavenly Home on Nov. 16th, 1936.

Mr. Peel joined the Methodist church at Salem near Elm Ridge and then later moved to Hearne and put his membership there. Later on Mr. and Mrs. Peel moved to Maysfield, which has twice been their home, and voluntarily put their membership in the Presbyterian church, where they have been faithful and consistent members since.

Mr. Peel was a great sufferer in recent months but patiently bore it and now has a happy release from it all. Kind and helpful in his home, an example to others, Mr. Peel did not live a melancholy life despite the infirmities of the flesh, but he was responsive to the encouragement of others and carried on with a noble spirit. With a cross to bear, he and his wife took it up and followed Christ with long suffering and devotion.

Mr. Peel is survived by five brothers: Archie Peel of Ennis, Frank Peel of Port Sullivan, Dan Peel of Mt. Pleasant, Howell Peel near Cameron and Bryan Peel of Houston; and three sisters, Mrs. V. H. Bryan of Houston, Mrs. Mary Belle Self of Houston and Mrs. Arnold Whatley of Scurry near Ennis.

At the funeral, which was held at the Presbyerian church at Maysfield on Sunday, April 27th at 4 p. m. were Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Bryan, Mrs. May Belle Self, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Martin and Carr Peel, all of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Peel and Everett Peel of Ennis; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Whatley of Scurry; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Self, Mrs. B. M. Lester and Mrs. George Blane of Gause; Mrs. M. J. Edmundson and son Howard and children, Rhoda Lynn, Mary Jane and Kenneth Edmundson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. John Ireland, all of Austin; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Broughton and E. R. Broughton, Jr., of Smithville; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gilmore and daughter, Mary Ellen and Geraldine Broughton of Temple; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ireland and daughters, Joy Belle and Carole Ann of Teague; Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Gough, Jr., and Mrs. M. B. Gough of Bryan; Mrs. J. E. Stevens, Williard Henderson and Talmage and David Self of Hearne; Mrs. T. L. Peel of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Peel and son, Brooks, of Mt. Pleasant; Edwin Peel of Longview and a number of Cameron friends.

Pall bearers were: Murfee Tyson, Williard Cooper, Joe J. Bailey, Hugh Smith, Roy Yates and J. P. Wise.

To sorrowing friends and others we would commend the following poem by Nell Crawford Flobart:

'Tis just enough that Jesus Christ hath loved me,
Hath come from Heaveh my guilty soul to save;
To know that all my sin is now forgiven,
Because for me His precious life He gave.

* * * *

'Tis just enough to know each day He keeps me,
That by my side He constantly is near;
To know that He who loves me always watches,
Even tho' the night be lonely, dark and drear.

* * * *

'Tis just enough, when trials fierce assail me,
And human strength, frail, weak and spent is mine,
To hear Him say, "Thy strength is naught but weakness,
Just trust in Me, for Mine is Power Divine."

* * * *

'Tis just enough when sorrow comes to grieve me,
To hear His softest whisper full of cheer,
"My child, I'm here to comfort you and help you,
Just lean upon me, child, for I am here."

* * * *

'Tis enough to know that He is coming—
(Perhaps e'en now His footsteps draweth nigh.)—
To take me Home, to be with Him in Glory,
Where praises I may sing to Him Most High!

Virgil A. Turner Is Promoted In Air Corps

Announcement has been made of the promotion of Staff Sergeant Virgil A. Turner, formerly of the 61st School Squadron, Air Corps, Kelly Field, to that of First Sergeant of the 346th School Squadron, Air Corps, Phoenix, Arizona, now temporarily stationed at Kelly Field.

Sergeant Turner, 23, was born in Cameron, Oct. 4, 1917, and spent his boyhood career here. He attended Grammer and High School in Cameron and after finishing enlisted in the U. S. Army, Filed Artillery, Oct. 20, 1935, being stationed at Fort D. A. Russell, Marfa. He served continously from date of enlistment to December 1939. On Sept. 15, 1940, he was promoted to Corporal; then on Sept. 15, 1940, just 15 days later, he was made Sergeant; five months later he jumped to Staff Sergeant on March 5, 1941. Twenty-eight days later he was transferred to the 346th School Squadron and promoted to the Grade of First Sergeant, of which organization he is now an active member and Non-Commissioned Officer.

Sergeant Turner has spent most of his Army Career in the Orderly Room doing Adminstrative work. During his stay at Kelly Field, he has proven his ability as one of the most efficient administrative Non-Commissioned Officers at Kelly Field. In addition to his ability, Sgt. Turner, has a likeable personality and is well liked by Non-Commissioned Officers and enlisted men serving under his direction.

On March 12, 1941, Sgt. Turner was married to Miss Beatrice Witten of Gonzales. She was attending High School in Marfa, when Sgt. Turner first met her. She later finished School in Smiley, after which they were married in Seguin.

Wake Lazy Insides All-Vegetable Way

Thousands turn to this way to get relief when they're lazy intestinally and it has them headachy, bilious, irritable, listless: A quarter to a half-teaspoonful of spicy, aromatic, all-vegetable BLACK-DRAUGHT on your tongue tonight, a drink of water, and there you are! Thus, it usually allows time for a night's rest; acts gently, thoroughly next morning, so relieving constipation's headaches, biliousness, bad breath.

BLACK-DRAUGHT'S main ingredient is an "intestinal tonic-laxative," which helps impart tone to lazy bowel muscles. The millions of packages used prove its merit. Economical, too: 25 to 40 doses, 25c.

SEVEN SEAS NOT TOO FAR FOR U. S. NAVY

President Roosevelt Friday at his press conference in Washington said patrol of naval vessels will be extended to the seven seas if necessary to see that all out aid to Britain is successful.

The President revealed that Greenland may already be occupied in part by the Axis. He would not elaborate.

The naval action was declared to be neutrality patrol and does not mean convoy. The United States navy is now in action and has been for some time.

The speeches of Secretary of State Cordell Hull and Secretary of the Navy Knox had stirred a tumult throughout the world.

In Germany the controlled Nazi press recalled the words of Hitler that all ships giving aid to Britain would be sunk on sight. The Nazi government took a more concilitory view and declared the German government meant no such drastic things. The Nazi, they say, have no intention of attacking this country. They even went so far as to say that there has been a misunderstanding, that Secretary Knox had greatly overstated the issue. The British were reported to be gradually giving up the fight in Greece but around historic Thermopylae the Germans had been held up. The Germans said the Swastika would be over Athens by Sunday. They also said the pass had been taken.

Roosevelt was greatly resentful of Lindberg's New York speech. He called the Lone Eagle a Copperhead, and said he could be compared to a well known figure of revolutionary days who advised Washington to surrender.

Asked why Lindberg had not been called into activce service the President replied that he 'never would be called.' This was taken to indicate that Lindberg is not to be trusted.

Judge Graham Gillis was in Lexington on Thursday night for a log rolling contest sponsored by the Knights of Pythias Lodge.

J. B. Doss of Austin was a business visitor in Cameron Thursday.

Rev. T. D. McQuary of Buckholts was a Cameron visitor on Monday.

Band Has Long Record of Brilliant Triumphs In Last 10 Years; Gets Support of People Here

Cameron's Nationally Famous Yoe High School Band is the central unit around which has revolved for years such activities as now advanced in the three day Free Cooking School to be held in Cameron on April 30 and May 1 and 2.

The Band, city's No. 1 Pride, has so filled the people with admiration, they are always working to improve it and to give it adaquate financial support. Briefly that is the cause for this great cooking school enlisting Miss Albertine Berry, daily lecturer, and widely known home economist, with the Community Natural Gas Company.

The amazing record made by the band under the leadership of Francis Cox, constitutes a 10 year period of triumphs that have brought wide notice to the city and benefits incalcuable to hundreds of students who have graduated from the school of music and Yoe High.

Francis Cox came to Cameron in 1931 and the original group known as the Yoe High School Band, was organized in the school year of 1931-32 as the Cameron Municipal Band which was supported in part by the city. The membership was then made up of adults and students from the school under the able direction of Francis Cox.

The band entered the first state contest at Mexia in 1933 and won first prize in the First Year band class. Returning to the state contest in 1934 the band again won first place in Second Year Band class.

In 1925 the municipal class of bands was eliminated from the contests. The local group, in order to participate eliminated all men members, and with 35 children entered the school band class against bands with as many as 60 pieces. Under the new rating system at that time installed in contests the little band from Cameron, that was later to win nation's acclaim, entered and made Third Division as a school band when it was not a school group.

In 1936 the dream of many was realized when the city government placed the band in the school system for the first time. Mr. Cox went to work. He recruited 51 boys and girls. That year the band made Second Division in Concert Playing and third division in Sight Reading.

By 1937 the band was coming along with marked distinction under Mr. Cox. The band had 70 members in 1937 and again rated Second Division in concert playing but made a rating of First Division in sight reading, a rating which has been made by the band in every succeeding contest since that date. It was the first year for marching contests and the band made Third Rating.

In the district contest at Mexia in 1938 the band rated First Division in concert playing, First Division in sight reading and second in marching. At the state contest in 1937 held at Waco the band made First Division in all three, Concert playing, sight reading and marching.

The real triumph came in 1939 when the band won national recognition. That year at the state contest the band made First Division in all three events again then went to the National Contest held in Abilene where it ranked First Division in all three events, concert playing, sight reading and marching.

In 1940 under rules made by the Association and going direct to the National Contests the band made Second Division in concert, first in sight reading and second marching.

In 1941 contest which has just ended the band scored perhaps its greatest triumph of all its brilliant history. The band scored First Division ratings in all three events with an honorary "plus." First rating in sight reading came under most complimentary circumstances because it was left to the judge's discretion. The band's marching rating was also given special commendation after it had won First Division.

Band Parents Grateful For Co-Operation in The Cooking School

V. L. Luckett, President of the Band Parents Assocation, today expressed his appreciation of the co-operation that has been extended by the business men who made possible the Free Cooking School to be held here on April 30 through May 2nd.

"I wish to express on behalf of the Band Parents Association my deep gratitude for this manifestation of interest in our great band. But for the interest shown these contributions would not be possible for the support of the band. Any city so regarding its band earns the respect and paise of the state and nation."

IN LETTER TO FDR LONE EAGLE STEPS OUT

Col. Chas. A. Lindberg today resigned his commission in the United States Air Corps in a letter to President Roosevelt.

There was no comment at the White House on the resignation and it was not known whether it will be accepted immediately.

Last week President Roosevelt called the Colonel a Copperhead Lindberg has opposed aid to Britain and also has opposed the President's foreign policy. In a speech in New York last week Lindberg said that Britain had lost the war.

He had held his commission in the Reserve Air Corps for 14 years but had never been on active duty. At his press conference last week the President said that Lindberg would not be called into active service. He is suspected of Nazi leanings and as such could not be trusted was the opinion held by observers and newspaper men who heard the President lambast the Colonel.

The contents of the letter to the President was not made public.

Scores of bodies of British and Australian soldiers were afloat on the Sea Coast off Greece the victims of German bomber planes and submarines, it was officially reported by the German news agency today.

The Germans said the British did not escape as they did at Dunqurque and their losses will be heavy.

As the last remaining British trooops sought flight from Greece to Crete the Germans entered upon one of their most destructive raids, sinking ships and cutting off flight.

President Roosevelt Monday announced that Greek assets in this country had been frozen. This has been done in the case of eight countries conquored by the Germans.

"Build-Up" Relief Explained to Women

A simple method has saved many women a lot of suffering!

It is based on the fact that headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain are often symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition.

Help for this condition so often follows the use of CARDUI, because it usually increases the appetite and the flow of gastric juices; thus aids digestion and helps build physical resistance. Usual result is less periodic distress.

Many who take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time" have found this helps ease periodic discomfort. ● Women have used CARDUI for more than 50 years!

. . . so they invaded Rome—the Barbarians hungered for land!

Four hundred years the Roman Empire flourished; centuries of luxury had softened them, and their security had already begun to ebb when the Vandals swept over the Alps to feast upon the excesses which to them had become fabulous. But it was more than lustful greed that drew the northern hordes to sunny Italy—it was the fudamental hunger for LAND, the same hunger that has motivated man throughout the ages. . . . .

LAND IS WEALTH

The desire to own land is basic in man—no commodity, no other form of wealth, serves to supply man with the spiritual satisfaction that comes of being a "landowner." Invest your savings in real estate—know the pride of owning property.

LAST BRITISH FRIEND IN EUROPE IS LOST

Success of German diplomacy as well as arms seemed certain today to have won over Turkey to the Axis side.

Reliable reports from various sources from the near east said that Turkey has become less friendly with Britain.

It was regarded as certain that Turkey had deserted the alliance with England even before the beginning of the Balkan campaign. Under the terms of the Anglo-Turkish alliance Britain and the Turks had a mutal defense alliance and Turkey was obligated to go to war if the war spread to the Southeastern Mediterranean.

When the British went into Greece it was presumed the British were fulfilling her alliance with both Greece and Turkey. If Turkey had not already passed under German influence though fear and pressure it was not long in developing.

Thus England was today without a friend in the world and having been so isolated from all countries save a token friendship with the United States, it was believed the war could no longer be waged in either Africa or Europe.

Russia was given credit for arranging the estrangement of Turkey from Britain.

It was announced in London Wednesday that 45,000 British soldiers had been evacuated from Greece.

A Russian report said that 12,000 German troops well equipped as usual had been landed in Finland. There was no explanation.

Some wishful thinkers expressed belief it meant a threat to Russia or a defense against Soviet attack. The Soviet Union and Germany are in full accord on all movements and this has been proven many times. It was through Russian influence that the Balkans were taken over by Hitler and also that Turkey was taken out of the alliance with Britain.

All of this will develop in time.

National Defense Menus Will Be Stressed At Three Day Cooking School Opening Wednesday

Menus designed to aid national defense by sustaining the health of the nation through nutritious and perfectly balanced meals at minimum cost will be presented by Albertine Berry of Dallas, Community Natural Gas Company hame economics director, at the cooking school in Cameron April 30, and May 1 and 2, sponsored by the Band Parents Assn. Classes will be held in the ware house back of the gas company office from 2 until 5 p. m.

Through the use of modern gas ranges, Miss Berry will show housewives how they can clip hours off their day and have more time to participate in national defense and British war relief activities. Pointing to food conservation, she will show ways to make left-overs appetizing.

"Vigorous health is necessary to the country's welfare and morals," Miss Berry said, "especially under the emergency we face today. War against inadequate diet and its accompanying ailments was started by home economists of the gas industry long before national defense was imminent. This work is being accelerated to spread the gospel of healthful food preparation and planning, so necessary under the extreme conditions we are meeting now."

Miss Berry is chairman of the American Gas Association home service committee. She pointed out that the federal government already has registered thousands of home economists to serve in the mational defense program, and in case of war, to enlarge upon these activities as a means to protect the health and morals of the nation.

"The army is our first line of defense," Miss Berry said. "It is important that our second line of defense—men, women and children at home, at school and in industry—be well fed with healthful diet. Our responsibility is to help build a healthier and stronger nation. 25 per cent of the men drafted in 1940 were turned down because of poor health."

"We can co-operate with local, county, state and federal agencies interested in good health, proper nutrition and food probelms," she said. "Any work that will build up and keep the good health of our children—our nation of the future—is to be particularly recommended.

"One of the best illustrations of what home economists can do in the defense program is what is being done today in England. The government is depending upon home service women to keep British homemakers informed about what foods are available and the best ways of preparing them in order to keep national good health at the highest possible level."

Home service workers can help in the present emergency by the following ways, as suggested by Miss Berry: (1) Interpreting home economics service for all income families especially for families with low incomes. (2) Dispensing information on food and nutrition. (3) Assisting in menu planning for school lunches. (4) Promotion of the use of surplus commodities by families needing and eligible to receive them.

Mrs. Stanley Swift said that in order to reach the goals set for the delivery of garments for the Red Cross work abroad more knitters are necessary. Those who will cooperate in this work are requested to call at the Red Cross room between the hours of 2 and 5 p. m. except Saturday.

If you wish to help in the work of knitting garments and cannot go to the sewing room for the wool yarn, please call Mrs. Swift at 752, her residence and the yarn will be delivered.

The urgency of the work is emphasized by the international situation creating demand for Red Cross service in Britain and other countries where war has spread its devastation leaving homeless and without food and clothing many millions of miserable Europeon people.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Oliver of Newroads, La., spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Oliver.

William C. Wallace, former City Attorney, now in Camp Bowie at Brownwood, was home over the week end to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wallace.
